Enjoy an altogether more rewarding and restful start to the New Year on a wonderful winter cruise to sun-drenched islands and fascinating cities. Stunning landscapes, gardens and beaches are yours to discover, all while enjoying seasonal warmth, in Madeira and the Canaries; then Cádiz and Lisbon will reveal a wealth of historical and cultural attractions.

A relaxing long weekend at sea will leave you feeling refreshed and ready to explore Madeira. After arriving in the capital, Funchal, you'll be afforded time to seek out the attractions of Portugal's 'Garden Island'; highlights include the magnificent Cabo Girão, a towering sea cliff overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, and the enchanting Monte Palace Tropical Garden. Four days in the Canaries follow, visiting four uniquely impressive Spanish islands. The 'Pretty Island' of La Palma will beg for your exploration during a call into Santa Cruz de La Palma; an astonishing UNESCO-listed wonderland of varied landscapes awaits. Choose to tour to the San Antonio Volcanic Park perhaps, to see wonders such as the Teneguia Volcano up-close; or uncover the secrets of 'enchanted' laurel forests. Then there's Tenerife, offering plenty of unforgettable sights and experiences. Majestic Mount Teide, towering over Tenerife's volcanic landscape, is a remarkable sight and the views on offer from Spain's highest peak are not-to-be-missed. Elsewhere, the pyramids and poison gardens of Güímar are well worth a visit.
