During hours of scenic cruising, smaller ship Bolette takes you on journeys into mountain-flanked fjords, to see their summertime scenery at its best. Within Maurangerfjord, feel the spray from Fureberg Waterfall as it tumbles down jagged rocks; and study the nature-carved, craggy cliffs and verdant landscapes of Hardangerfjord and the size-restricted waterways of Lysefjord and UNESCO-listed Naeroyfjord.

Your adventure offers plenty of time ashore to witness the summer beauty fjords even more closely too. Eidfjord is the starting point for discovering sights such as Vøringsfossen, one of Norway's most famous waterfalls, and for fjord kayaking experiences in Hardangerfjord. You can kayak the glassy waters of Naeroyfjord on tour from Flam, though you may opt to ride the famous Flamsbana Railway for some of the very best fjordland views. Meanwhile, from Lyngdal, you could tour to the Kvasfossen to watch locals fish for fresh salmon at the 'salmon ladder'.
