This hotel, set in the heart of St Peter Port's high street surrounded by picturesque cobbled streets and just a short stroll from the harbour, prides itself on the warm and friendly service offered to guests. The hotel has various dining options available whilst those looking to venture further afield will find numerous bars and restaurants just a stone's throw away.

St Peter Port

Historic St Peter Port nestles against a hillside sweeping down to one of the world's most beautiful harbours, bursting with yachts and fishing boats. The town's collection of narrow lanes and alleyways lead uphill from the sea to a skyline of church steeples and red-painted roof tops, while fine Georgian facades line the quaint cobbled High Street.
